

People

Unit 1 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Introduce yourself, talk about families, and use the verb "be" (am/is/are).

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Use the verb be in sentences
- ✓ Talk about personal information
- ✓ Talk about families
- ✓ Use possessive 's and possessive adjectives
- ✓ Use everyday verbs
- ✓ Introduce myself and other people

Topics: personal information · be (am/is/are) · be negative · be questions · contracted forms

Vocabulary — Personal information

first name	surname	job	occupation
place of birth	married	single	relationship
photographer	journalist	explorer	filmmaker
teacher	student	businessman

Beverley & Dereck Joubert are National Geographic explorers and filmmakers in Botswana.

Pronunciation — Contracted forms of "be"

In spoken English we usually contract the verb "be". Learn the contractions and listen for them.

- 'm = am (I'm a photographer)
- 're = are (You/We/They're married)
- 's = is (He/She/It's from South Africa)
- 'm not = am not (I'm not a journalist)
- aren't = are not (We aren't here today)
- isn't = is not (He isn't from South America)

be (am/is/are)

Use "be" to talk about names, jobs, nationality, age, marital status, etc. Form changes with the subject.

I	I am / I'm
you/we/they	you/we/they are / 're
he/she/it	he/she/it is / 's

Examples:

- I'm a photographer.
- You're married.
- He's from South Africa.
- We're here for a holiday.
- She is single. (She's single.)
- They are explorers. (They're explorers.)

be — negative and questions

Negative: subject + be + NOT. Question: be + subject? Short answers use the full pronoun + be (no contraction at end of YES answer).

Examples:

- I'm not a journalist.
- He isn't from South America.
- They aren't married.

- What's your name? — My name's Mike.
- Where are they from? — They're from Brazil.
- How old is he? — He's thirty-six.
- Are you from Botswana? — Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.
- Is she single? — Yes, she is. / No, she isn't.

Lesson 1b · A family in Kenya

Page 12-13

Topics: family · possessive 's · possessive adjectives · same or different sounds · word roots

Vocabulary — Family

aunt	cousin	father	grandparent
half-brother	mother	mother-in-law	nephew niece	parent	stepbrother	uncle

Men only: father, grandfather, half-brother, nephew, stepbrother, uncle. Women only: aunt, mother, mother-in-law, niece. Both: cousin, grandparent, parent.

Vocabulary — Word roots

mother → grandmother father → step-mother father → step-father sister → stepsister brother → stepbrother half-sister → half-sister half-brother →

Learn one root word, then build the family by adding "grand-", "step-", "half-", or "-in-law".

Pronunciation — Same or different sounds

Some pronouns and their possessive forms sound IDENTICAL (homophones). Others have slightly different vowel sounds.

- they're / their — SAME /ðeə(r)/
- he's /hi:z/ vs his /hɪz/ — DIFFERENT
- its / it's — SAME /ɪts/
- are /ɑ:(r)/ vs our /aʊə(r)/ — DIFFERENT
- you're / your — SAME /jʊə(r)/

Possessive 's

Add 's to a name or noun to show possession (ownership / family relation).

Examples:

- Mike's wife is a teacher.
- Louise's mother is Meave.
- Mike and Sally's home is in Canada. (two owners → 's only on the second name)
- Note: 's can also = "is" — "She's a teacher" ('s = is). Use context to tell.

Possessive adjectives

Every subject pronoun has a matching possessive adjective. Use them BEFORE a noun.

I my

you	your he	his
she	her
it	its (no apostrophe!)
we	our they	their

Examples:

- She's MY sister.
- What's YOUR name?
- HIS name is Charlie.
- OUR family is from Asia.
- THEIR cousins are both girls.

Lesson 1c · The face of seven billion people

Page 14-15

Topics: numbers · percentages · everyday verbs · word focus: in

Vocabulary — Numbers & percentages

1 billion	1.3 billion (one point three billion)	5.5 billion
7 billion	23% (twenty-three percent)	51%

The decimal point is read as "point". 1.3 = "one point three". "Per cent" (BrE) / "percent" (AmE).

Vocabulary — Everyday verbs

have	live	speak	use
work

Common pairings: live + IN a place, speak + a language, work + IN an industry, have + a possession, use + a tool.

Word focus: in Three common uses of "in" for place/work.

a	in + a country (in the United Kingdom)
b	in + a city or region (in Mexico City)
c	in + a type of work / industry (in the service industry)

Examples:

- 21 million people live IN Mexico City.
- There are 65 million people IN the United Kingdom.

- 40% of the population work IN the service industry.
- 49% live IN the countryside.

Lesson 1d · First-day skills + world party

Page 16-19

Topics: alphabet · spelling · meeting people · writing personal description · and / but · world party · video lesson

Vocabulary — Video — World party (1f)

seven billion	square feet	square mile	foot (feet)
mile	centimetre	kilometre	compare
average	a bit

USA uses feet/miles; the metric world uses centimetres/kilometres. 1 foot $\approx$ 30 cm; 1 mile $\approx$ 1.6 km. The video shows Chinese New Year in Singapore.

Pronunciation — Spelling — the English alphabet (1d)

Each letter has its own name. Practise spelling personal info: name, surname, country, job.

- A /eɪ/ B /bi:/ C /si:/ D /di:/ E /i:/
- F /ef/ G /dʒi:/ H /etʃ/ I /aɪ/ J /dʒeɪ/
- W /'dʌb(ə)l ju:/ X /eks/ Y /waɪ/ Z /zed/ (BrE) /zi:/ (AmE)
- "Can you spell your first name?" — "It's Pablo. P-A-B-L-O."
- "Can you repeat that?" — "Sure. P-A-B-L-O."

Real life — Meeting people for the first time (1d)

Standard phrases for introducing yourself, introducing another person, and saying goodbye.

Examples:

- Introducing yourself: Hello ... / Hi ... — My name's ... / I'm ... — I'm from ... — Nice to meet you. — Nice to meet you, too.
- Introducing another person: This is ... — He's / She's from ...
- Saying goodbye: See you later. — It was nice meeting you. — Goodbye. / Bye.

Writing skill — "and" and "but" (1e)

Use "and" to add EXTRA / similar information. Use "but" to show a DIFFERENCE or contrast. Note: use a comma before "but" when joining two clauses.

Examples:

- "I'm 21 AND my sister is 21." (same/parallel info → and)
- "I live in Spain, BUT I'm from Argentina." (Spain $\neq$ Argentina → but)
- "I'm from England, BUT I study in the USA."
- "He's from Germany, BUT he works in Russia."
- Tip: when starting from two short sentences, choose AND if they match, BUT if they contrast.

Possessions

Unit 2 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Describe rooms, talk about objects you own, and shop in English.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Talk about furniture and objects in the house
- ✓ Use there is / there are
- ✓ Use prepositions of place
- ✓ Make singular and plural nouns
- ✓ Use this, that, these, those
- ✓ Say currencies, countries and nationalities
- ✓ Ask about and buy objects in a shop

Topics: furniture · there is/are · prepositions of place

Vocabulary — Furniture

sofa	armchair	chair	television (TV)
desk	lamp	computer	pictures
blinds	curtains	cupboards and drawers	rug
plant	carpet	shelves

The four families live in the Evergreen Tower in Seoul, South Korea. Every apartment has a living room, kitchen, bathroom and 2 bedrooms.

there is / there are

Use "there is/are" to say what exists in a place. Singular → there is. Plural → there are. Use "any" with negatives and questions.

+	There's a living room. / There are two bedrooms.
–	There isn't a table. / There aren't any beds.
?	Is there a sofa? — Yes, there is. / Are there any pictures? — No, there aren't.

Examples:

- There's a sofa on the right.
- There are pictures on the wall.
- There isn't a rug in this apartment.
- Are there any books? — No, there aren't.
- How many pictures are there? — There are three.

Prepositions of place

Tell where things are in relation to other things.

Examples:

- in (the box) — inside
- on (the desk) — touching the top
- next to (the bed) — beside
- under (the table) — below
- above (the door) — higher, not touching
- between (X and Y) — in the middle of two things
- behind (the sofa) — at the back of
- in front of (the window) — directly before
- opposite (the TV) — facing
- on the left / on the right / in the middle

Topics: useful objects · plural nouns · this/that/these/those · /ɪ/ or /i:/

Vocabulary — Useful objects

boots	bottle	camera	first-aid kit
gloves	hat	knife	map
mobile phone	pens	torch

Andy Torbet is a Scottish adventurer who climbs, dives and kayaks. These are the things in his rucksack.

Pronunciation — /ɪ/ vs /i:/

Two similar vowel sounds. /ɪ/ is SHORT (this, big, pink, it). /i:/ is LONG (these, keys, green, read).

- /ɪ/ — this, big, pink, it
- /i:/ — these, keys, green, read
- Listen for length: /i:/ is held longer than /ɪ/.

Plural nouns — spelling rules

Most nouns add -s. Special rules for words ending in -ch/-sh/-s, -y, -f/-fe. Some are irregular.

+s	normal: boot → boots, glove → gloves
+es	sh, s, ch, x, ss, z — torch → torches, bus → buses, class → classes, box → boxes, buzz → buzzes. Mẹo: " sh áng say, chi ều xỉn, sung sướng, zô"
-ies	consonant + -y: country → countries, family → families
-ves	-f/-fe: knife → knives, shelf → shelves, life → lives
irreg.	man → men, woman → women, person → people, child → children, foot → feet, tooth → teeth, mouse → mice

Examples:

- one map → two maps
- one mobile phone → two mobile phones
- one camera → two cameras
- one life → two lives
- one wife → two wives
- one city → two cities

this, that, these, those

Demonstratives change with NUMBER (singular/plural) and DISTANCE (near/far).

near sing.	this (one thing near you)
far sing.	that (one thing away from you) near plur.

these (many things near you) far plur.

those (many things away from you)

Examples:

- What's this? — It's a first-aid kit.
- What's that? — It's my camera.
- What are these? — They're my pens.
- What are those? — They're Andy's gloves.
- Is this torch Andy's? / Are those your boots?

Lesson 2c · Global objects

Page 26-27

Topics: countries and nationalities · word stress · suffixes

Vocabulary — Countries and nationalities

Britain → British	Germany → German	Austria → Austrian	Netherlands → Dutch
Canada → Canadian	Italy → Italian	Belgium → Belgian	England → English
Spain → Spanish	France → French	Brazil → Brazilian	Poland → Polish
Vietnam → Vietnamese

Common nationality endings: -ish (Polish, Spanish), -n (Italian, German), -ian (Canadian, Brazilian), -ese (Vietnamese, Japanese, Chinese). Some are irregular: French, Dutch.

Pronunciation — Word stress in nationalities

Most country/nationality words are stressed on the FIRST syllable. Words ending in -ese are stressed on the LAST syllable.

- BRItain / BRItish (first syllable)
- iTAlian / aMErican (second syllable)
- japaNESE / vietnaMESE / portuGUESE (last syllable, -ese ending)

The Mini — a global product

A car can be "from" different places: company, parts, factory. This shows globalisation.

Examples:

- The Mini was a British car until 2000.
- BMW (German) is the producer now.
- The factory is still in Oxford, England.
- There are 2,500 parts from many different countries (Europe + North America).

Lesson 2d · Shopping + adverts + photos

Page 28-31

Topics: prices and currencies · shopping · word focus: one/ones · contrastive stress · adjectives · adjective order · writing adverts · video lesson · a thousand words

Vocabulary — Prices and currencies (2d)

£ pounds (UK)	$ dollars (USA)	€ euros (EU)	¥ yen (Japan)
£2.50 = two pounds fifty / $11.11 = a hundred and eleven pounds eleven

Common shopping phrases: "Can I help you?" / "I'd like..." / "How much is it?" / "Are there other colours?" / "These ones are red." / "How much are they?"

Vocabulary — Adjectives and their opposites (2e)

old ↔ modern/new	bad ↔ good	useless ↔ useful	slow ↔ fast
small ↔ big/large	expensive ↔ cheap

Vocabulary — Video — Key phrases (2f)

I miss you	Please forward	Good luck!	apartment
bicycle	box	cake	camera
lamp	letterbox	package	pen plant

"A picture says a thousand words." A photographer in Los Angeles sends his camera to Nasim in Boston.

Pronunciation — Contrastive stress (1) (2d)

When you contrast two things with this/that/these/those, STRONG stress on the demonstrative highlights the difference.

- This ball is nice, but THAT one is horrible!
- These gloves are small, but THOSE ones are large.

Word focus: one / ones (2d)

Use "one" / "ones" to AVOID repeating a noun. Singular → one. Plural → ones.

Examples:

- I'd like a glass of water. A small ONE, please. (= a small glass)
- I'd like two T-shirts. Small ONES, please. (= small T-shirts)
- This ball is nice, but that ONE is horrible.
- These gloves are small, but those ONES are large.

Writing skill — Adjective order (2e)

When using multiple adjectives, follow this order: OPINION → SIZE → AGE → COLOUR → NATIONALITY → NOUN.

Opinion	useful, nice, lovely, beautiful
Size	large, small
Age	modern, new, old
Colour	white, grey, red
Nation.	Japanese, Italian, French

Examples:

- It's a fast, new, Japanese motorbike. (opinion + age + nationality)
- A useful, modern, white desk and chair. (opinion + age + colour)
- They're lovely red gloves. (opinion + colour)
- There are two beautiful, old, Italian chairs for sale.
- For sale: a large, modern, white house.

Two patterns to describe (2e)

You can describe an object in two ways with the same meaning.

Examples:

- The desk is modern. = It's a modern desk.
- The car is old. = It's an old car.
- These laptops are slow. = They're slow laptops.

Places

Unit 3 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Describe cities, talk about your job and routines using the present simple, and ask for directions.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Tell the time
- ✓ Describe a town or city
- ✓ Talk about places of work
- ✓ Use the present simple
- ✓ Ask questions with the present simple
- ✓ Ask for and give directions

Topics: describing cities · present simple (I/you/we/they)

Vocabulary — Describing cities

free	expensive ↔ cheap	popular	polluted
noisy ↔ quiet	crowded	modern ↔ old	beautiful ↔ ugly
clean ↔ dirty	big ↔ small	relaxing

No-car zones — areas for people, bicycles and public transport only. Examples: London parks, Tokyo (Ginza), Bogotá, Melbourne (Bourke Street).

Present simple — I/you/we/they Use the present simple for facts, routines and habits. With I/you/we/they, use the BASE form. Negative and question forms use the auxiliary "do".

+	I/you/we/they + base verb (have, live, like...)
–	I/you/we/they + don't + base verb
?	Do + I/you/we/they + base verb? — Yes, I do. / No, I don't.

Examples:

- I live in the city centre.
- We don't have a car. We go everywhere by bicycle.
- Do you like shopping? — Yes, I do. / No, I don't.
- Where do you live? — In the city centre.
- What time do you finish work? — At about three o'clock.

Lesson 3b · Places of work

Topics: places of work · present simple (he/she/it) · -s endings

Vocabulary — Places of work

accountant — office	doctor — hospital	pilot — plane	sailor — ship/boat
teacher — classroom	sales assistant — shop	waiter — restaurant

Pronunciation — -s endings: /s/, /z/, /ɪz/

The 3rd-person -s has THREE possible sounds depending on the final sound of the verb. Mẹo tiếng Việt: "sháng say, chiều xỉn, sung sướng, zô" → /ɪz/; "Thời Fong Kiến Phương Tây" → /s/; còn lại → /z/.

- /ɪz/ — sh, s, ch, x, ss, z — torch → torches, bus → buses, class → classes, box → boxes, buzz → buzzes. Mẹo: "sháng say, chiều xỉn, sung sướng, zô"
- /s/ — sau phụ âm vô thanh (t, f, k, p, th-vô-thanh): works, meets, starts, laughs — nhớ qua "Thời Fong Kiến Phương Tây"
- /z/ — mặc định (sau âm hữu thanh hoặc nguyên âm): lives, goes, studies, travels, plays

Present simple — he/she/it

+	He/She/It + verb-s (works, has, does, studies)
–	He/She/It + doesn't + base verb
?	Does + he/she/it + base verb? — Yes, she does. / No, she doesn't.

- He works in a shop.
- She studies places under the sea.
- He has exams soon. (have → has)
- She doesn't live in London.
- Does he have children? — Yes, he does. / No, he doesn't.
- What does Beverly do? — She's a marine archaeologist.

Page 38-39

- first language (your native language)
- second language (one you learn later)
- official language (used by the government)
- native speaker (learned the language as a child)
- Over 1 billion speakers of Chinese — Mandarin is in 1st place.
- English is in 4th place as a first language.

Lesson 3d · Atlanta + city description + Cowley Road

Page 40-43

Topics: places in a city · giving directions · writing description · capital letters · video lesson · Oxford

Vocabulary — Places in a city (3d)

car park	museum	hotel	library
theatre	park	post office	aquarium
cinema	gym / sports centre	art gallery	visitor centre

Vocabulary — Video — Cowley Road, Oxford (3f)

post office	community	pre-schooler	medical centre
ingredients	traffic lights	mosque	sports centre supermarket

Real life — Giving directions (3d)

Useful phrases for asking where things are and giving directions.

Examples:

- Asking: Where is ...? / I'd like to go to ... / Is it near here?
- Distance: It's near here. / It's about ten minutes away.
- Go past the ... (past = alongside and beyond)
- Go across ... (cross to the other side)
- Go straight up ... (continue forward)
- Take the first street on the left/right. / Turn left. / Turn right.

Writing skill — Capital letters (3e)

In English, USE a capital letter for: start of sentence, the pronoun I, names of people/cities/places, countries/nationalities/languages, days/months, streets/parks/squares.

Examples:

- I'm from Australia. (start, pronoun I, country)
- I love Sydney. (city)
- I love the winter in Moscow.
- December is my favourite month. (month)
- On Saturdays I meet friends. (day)
- I go to Narrabeen Beach. (place)
- NO capital for: seasons (winter), parts of the day (evening).

Free time

Unit 4 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Talk about free-time activities, frequency, and what you can/can't do.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Talk about likes and dislikes
- ✓ Use like / love + -ing
- ✓ Talk about my daily life
- ✓ Use adverbs and expressions of frequency
- ✓ Talk about my abilities with can/can't
- ✓ Write short emails

Lesson 4a · 100% identical?

Page 46-47

Topics: collocations · like/love + -ing · /ŋ/

Vocabulary — Verb + noun collocations go: swimming, running, playing football, going to the gym, taking the dog for a walk, watching TV, working

read: a magazine, a book	meet: friends
use: social media, the internet	have: a coffee, a meal make: phone calls, a cake

Pronunciation — /ŋ/ — the -ing sound

The "-ing" ending of verbs is pronounced /ɪŋ/. The final letter "g" is NOT pronounced separately — /ŋ/ is one nasal sound.

- playing /ˈpleɪɪŋ/
- listening /ˈlɪs(ə)ɪŋ/
- singing /ˈsɪŋɪŋ/ — has /ŋ/ twice!
- doing /ˈduːɪŋ/

like / love (+ noun / -ing)

After like / love / don't like / hate, use a NOUN or the -ING form of a verb.

Examples:

- They love books. (love + noun)
- They love playing golf. (love + -ing)
- They don't like the same football teams. (like + noun)
- She likes swimming. (likes + -ing)
- I don't like dancing.
- Do they like doing the same things?

Lesson 4b · Free time in the Arctic

Page 48-49

Topics: everyday activities · adverbs of frequency · expressions of frequency

Vocabulary — Everyday activities

do online shopping	go for a walk	have a coffee	make phone calls play online games	read a book	browse the internet	text friends
use social media	watch videos

Norbert Rosing is a National Geographic photographer who works in the Arctic.

Adverbs of frequency

These tell HOW OFTEN something happens. Position: AFTER "be", BEFORE other verbs.

100%	always
~80%	usually

~60%	often
~40%	sometimes
~20%	not often
0%	never

Examples:

- I'm often away at the weekend. (after "be")
- I don't often watch TV.
- I never play computer games.
- He's never bored.

Expressions of frequency

Specific frequencies use phrases like "once a year", "every day". They usually go at the END of a sentence.

Examples:

- He goes once a year.
- I drink coffee twice a day.
- We visit my cousins in the summer.
- You can see polar bears every day (between August and November).
- How often do you go to the gym?

Lesson 4c · Extreme sports

Page 50-51

Topics: sports · can/can't

Vocabulary — Sports

baseball	basketball	boxing	cricket
cycling	football (UK) / soccer	(ice) hockey	running sailing	skiing	surfing	swimming tennis

Use "play" with ball sports (play football). Use "go" with -ing activities (go swimming). Use "do" with martial arts (do Taekwondo).

Pronunciation — can vs can't

Positive "can" is usually unstressed (weak form /kən/). Negative "can't" is stressed and clearer (/kɑ:nt/ in BrE).

- I /kən/ swim. (weak — positive)
- I /kɑ:nt/ play tennis. (strong — negative)
- CAN you play the guitar? (strong in question)

can / can't (+ adverb)

"can" is a modal verb showing ability. Same form for all subjects (NO -s). Followed by the BASE form of the verb.

+	Subject + can + base verb
–	Subject + can't (cannot) + base verb
?	Can + subject + base verb? — Yes, I can. / No, I can't.
adv	Adverbs of degree go after: very well / a bit. "How well...?"

Examples:

- He can jump between 20 and 30 metres.
- He can't see very well.
- Can you speak French? — Yes, I can. / No, I can't.
- I can speak French a bit.
- How well can you swim?

Lesson 4d · A gap year + short emails + free time

Page 52-55

Topics: gap year · abilities and interests · sentence stress · writing short emails · video lesson · free time

Vocabulary — Gap year (4d)

gap year	volunteer	volunteer work	orphan
cub	enthusiastic	good at + -ing

Vocabulary — Video — Free-time passions (4f)

passion	hobby	free-time activity	I love ...
I really enjoy ...

Pronunciation — Sentence stress (4d)

Stress CONTENT words (nouns, main verbs, adjectives, adverbs). Don't stress function words (a, the, of, am).

- Are you GOOD at WRITING?
- I'm GOOD at WRITING.
- CAN you TEACH?
- I CAN'T speak ENGLISH very WELL.
- I LOVE ANimals!

Real life — Talking about abilities and interests (4d)

Common phrases for asking and saying what you can do and what you like.

Examples:

- Are you good at teaching?
- How well can you speak English?
- Can you teach?

- Do you like animals?
- I can speak English well.
- I can't go for eighteen months.
- I'm (not very) good at writing.
- I (don't) like animals. / I love them!

Writing skill — Short emails (4e)

In short, friendly emails: use informal greetings (Hi ...), contractions (I'm, I'd), and casual sign-offs.

Examples:

- Hi Sarah, / Hello Tom,
- I'm great, thanks! / I'd love to come.
- Looking forward to seeing you. / See you soon.
- Bye / Cheers / Best wishes,

Food

Unit 5 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Talk about food, quantities, food labels, and ordering meals.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Talk about food I like and eat
- ✓ Use a/an, some and any with countable and uncountable nouns
- ✓ Use a lot of, much and many
- ✓ Ask How many / How much for quantities
- ✓ Talk about food labels and healthy eating
- ✓ Order a meal in a restaurant

Topics: food · countable/uncountable · /tʃ/ or /dʒ/

Vocabulary — Food

cheese	chicken	chips	eggs
fish	juice	lamb	lemons
lentils	nuts	onions	oranges
pasta	peppers	potatoes	prawns
raisins	rice	salt	pepper

Popular dishes: pizza (Italy), ceviche (Peru), satay (Indonesia), kabsa (Saudi Arabia), pierogi (Poland), curry (India).

Pronunciation — /tʃ/ vs /dʒ/

/tʃ/ is voiceless (as in "chicken", "cheese"). /dʒ/ is voiced (as in "juice", "orange").

- /tʃ/ — chicken, cheese, church, watch
- /dʒ/ — juice, orange, general, large

Countable vs uncountable nouns + a/an, some, any

Countable nouns can be counted (one egg, two eggs). Uncountable nouns can't be counted (some water — NOT "two waters").

a / an	singular COUNTABLE: an onion, a banana
some	PLURAL countable AND UNCOUNTABLE — in POSITIVE sentences: some onions, some water
any	PLURAL countable AND UNCOUNTABLE — in NEGATIVE sentences and QUESTIONS: any carrots, any bread

Examples:

- Cook the chicken with an onion. (singular countable)
- You need some meat and some onions and tomatoes. (some + positive)
- I don't use any carrots. (any + negative)
- Do you have any bread? (any + question)

Topics: food markets · a lot of / much / many · quantities and containers · how much/how many

Vocabulary — Quantities and containers

a bag of rice	a bottle of water/sauce	a glass of water	a kilo of flour
a packet of pasta	a piece of pizza	a slice of cake	a tin of tuna

Famous markets in Unit 5b: St Lawrence (Toronto), Castries (Saint Lucia), Kreta Ayer (Singapore), La Vucciria (Palermo, Italy), Borough Market (London — 1,000 years old).

a lot of / much / many a lot of — works with countable AND uncountable, mainly in POSITIVES. much/many — mainly in NEGATIVES and QUESTIONS.

a lot of	countable plural + uncountable (positive sentences)
many	countable plural (negatives & questions)
much	uncountable (negatives & questions)

Examples:

- There are a lot of shops here. / There's a lot of food.
- There aren't many markets. / There isn't much food.
- Do you eat a lot of / many apples? — No, not many.
- Do you eat a lot of / much cheese? — No, not much.

How many / How much

Ask "How many" with countable plural nouns. Ask "How much" with uncountable nouns.

Examples:

- How many bananas do you want? — Six, please.
- How much rice do you want? — A kilo.
- How many tins of tuna do you need? — Four tins.
- How much cheese would you like? — Half a kilo, please.

Lesson 5c · An eater's guide to food labels

Page 62-63

Topics: food labels · word focus: mean

Vocabulary — Food labels

superfood	natural	best before	low fat
calorie	portion	ingredients	vitamins traffic lights (red/orange/green)

Don't trust the word "superfood" — anyone can use it. "Best before" = the food is best before this date, but you CAN still eat it afterwards. Low-fat food often has lots of sugar!

Word focus: mean

"Mean" has different uses depending on context.

Examples:

- Red MEANS the food is unhealthy. (= shows / signals)
- The word "healthy" MEANS the food is good for you. (= explains a word)
- Do you know what I MEAN? (= asking for understanding)
- I see what you MEAN. (= I understand)
- Your pizza is delicious. I MEAN it! (= I'm serious)
- We went out last Friday — I MEAN last Saturday. (= correcting yourself)

Lesson 5d · At the restaurant + instructions + world food quiz

Page 64-67

Topics: menus · ordering a meal · contracted forms · writing instructions · video lesson · world food

Vocabulary — Menus (5d)

Starters (1st course)	Main courses (2nd, big ones)	Desserts (sweet finish)	Drinks
garlic bread	soup	salad	pizza
burger	fries	smoothie	bottle of water
iced tea

Vocabulary — Video — World food quiz (5f)

street food	spicy	sweet	sour
salty	fresh	vegetarian

Pronunciation — Contracted forms (5d)

In restaurant orders, contractions sound natural: I'd = I would, I'll = I will.

- I'd /aɪd/ like a coffee.
- I'll /aɪl/ have a pizza.

Real life — Ordering a meal (5d)

Common phrases when ordering food in a restaurant.

Examples:

- Here is the menu. (waiter)
- Can I get you anything to drink first? (waiter)
- I'd like a bottle of water, please.
- I don't want a starter.
- I'll have a seafood pizza.
- I'd also like a dessert.
- Are you ready to order? (waiter)
- That was delicious.
- Can I get you anything else? (waiter)
- Could we have the bill, please?

Writing skill — Instructions (5e)

Recipes and instructions use the IMPERATIVE form (base verb, no subject). Use simple, clear language.

Examples:

- Cook the chicken with an onion.
- Add some salt and pepper.
- Serve with rice.
- Don't use too much oil.

Past lives

Unit 6 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Talk about people, places, and events in the past using was/were and the past simple.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Use the verb be in the past (was/were)
- ✓ Use the past simple to talk about finished events
- ✓ Ask and answer questions about the past
- ✓ Use time expressions (yesterday, in 1799, last March...)
- ✓ Use opinion adjectives
- ✓ Ask what people did last night / at the weekend
- ✓ Write formal and informal thank-you messages

Topics: famous faces · was/were · past simple regular · time expressions · -ed endings

Vocabulary — Famous faces & money

president	queen	scientist	musician
writer	artist	currency	note
coin	dollar	euro	pound
peso

Famous on money: George Washington (US 1-dollar), Frida Kahlo & Diego Rivera (Mexican 500-peso), Queen Elizabeth (UK notes). Euro notes show buildings/maps — NO famous people.

Vocabulary — Time expressions (past → present)

when I was a child	before the 18th century	in 1799	during the 19th century
the sixties	in 2000	last March	a week ago
last Monday evening	on January 1st, 2000	yesterday	this morning

Use IN with months/years/centuries (in 1799). Use ON with specific dates (on January 1st). Use ago AFTER the number (a week ago).

Pronunciation — -ed endings: /t/, /d/, /ɪd/

The "-ed" ending of regular past verbs has THREE sounds.

- /t/ — after voiceless sounds (k, p, s, ʃ, tʃ, f): liked, worked, watched, finished
- /d/ — after voiced sounds (b, g, l, m, n, v, vowels): lived, played, travelled, called
- /ɪd/ — after t or d sounds (EXTRA syllable): wanted, started, visited, painted, decided was / were — past simple of "be"

I/he/she/it → was. You/we/they → were. Same negative and question patterns as present.

+	George Washington WAS the first US president.
–	His face WASN'T on the dollar. There WEREN'T any famous people on euros.
?	When WAS he born? WERE they famous? Yes, they were. / No, they weren't.

Examples:

- I was a child in the nineties.
- They were Mexican artists.
- Where were you yesterday? — I was at home.
- Was she at home? — Yes, she was. / No, she wasn't.

Past simple — regular verbs

Use the past simple for FINISHED actions and events in the past. Regular verbs add -ed.

+	verb + -ed (worked, lived, studied, travelled) spell.	-e → +d (live → lived). Consonant + y → -ied (study → studied). BrE doubles -l (travel → travelled).

Examples:

- They worked in Mexico City.
- He lived in the 18th century.
- She studied art.
- They travelled in Europe.
- Frida painted self-portraits.

Lesson 6b · Visiting the past

Page 72-73

Topics: visiting the past · past simple irregular · past simple negative · past simple questions

Vocabulary — Visiting the past — Mustang caves

cave	mountain	century	river
family	humans	Mustang region	Nepal

Yandu Bista grew up in a cave in northern Nepal. Humans made these caves about 3,000 years ago. People lived in them until the 15th century. Yandu's family moved to a town, but she says: "I like living in a cave."

Past simple — irregular verbs

Many common verbs do NOT add -ed. They have their own past form. Learn them by heart!

Examples:

- go → went have → had do → did
- make → made bring → brought build → built
- grow → grew leave → left see → saw
- meet → met take → took write → wrote
- come → came get → got buy → bought
- See page 182 of the textbook for a full list of irregular verbs.

Past simple — negatives and questions

For ALL subjects (I/you/he/she/it/we/they): didn't + base verb. Did + subject + base verb? Use the BASE form after did/didn't — NOT the past form.

+	I/he/she/it/we/they grew up in a cave.
–	I/he/she/it/we/they DIDN'T live in a house. (NOT "didn't lived")
?	What DID you DO at the weekend? — I met some friends.
Y/N	DID you go to the cinema? — Yes, I did. / No, I didn't.

Examples:

- They didn't have water in the cave.
- She didn't live in a house.
- Where did you go yesterday? — I went to the museum.
- Did you have fun? — Yes, I did.
- NOTE: For "be" use was/were directly: Were they at home? — Yes, they were.

Lesson 6c · Lifelogging

Page 74-75

Topics: lifelogging · word focus: write

Vocabulary — Lifelogging

diary	lifelogger	blog	photographs
fitness tracker	video	comments	social media

Samuel Pepys (17th century) wrote the most famous diary in English. Gordon Bell became the first "lifelogger" in 2000 — he wore a camera that automatically took a picture every 30 seconds. Today we lifelog with photos, social media posts, and fitness trackers.

Word focus: write

The verb "write" combines with different prepositions and objects to make different meanings.

Examples:

- write ABOUT history — the topic of your writing
- write A diary — what you write (an article/journal)
- write TO your grandparents — the person you send to
- write DOWN a word — note it on paper (phrasal verb)

Lesson 6d · How was your evening? + Thanks! + objects video

Page 76-79

Topics: asking what people did · opinion adjectives · intonation · thank you messages · formal and informal · video lesson · museum objects

Vocabulary — Opinion adjectives (positive → negative) (6d)

fantastic / great / very good 😊	OK / fine / nice / not bad 😊	funny 😄	boring 😞 terrible / not very good 😞 fun = enjoyable (an activity). funny = makes you laugh (a joke, a film). They are NOT the same!

Vocabulary — Video — Objects from the past (6f)

museum	object	history	precious ancient	discover	century	civilization

Pronunciation — Intonation — matching your tone to your opinion (6d)

Strong opinions need lively/animated intonation. Neutral opinions sound flat. Make your voice match how you feel.

- "Fantastic!" — enthusiastic, voice goes up
- "Terrible!" — strong falling tone, drawn out
- "OK" / "Fine" — flat, neutral
- "Not bad" with flat tone = slightly positive (British understatement)

Real life — Asking what people did (6d)

Useful phrases for asking and answering about past events.

Examples:

- How was your evening / weekend / holiday?
- Did you have a good evening / weekend? Did you have a good time?
- Did you have fun last night? — It was great / fun / OK / not much.
- Activity: What did you do? — I went for a walk. / I watched TV.
- Place: Where did you go? — To a café / a party / the cinema.
- People: Who were you with? — A friend / friends / my family.
- How many: Were there many people there? — Yes, lots! / No, not many.

Writing skill — Formal vs informal thank-you messages (6e)

Match the style to your relationship. Informal for friends/family; formal for clients/teachers/strangers.

Greet	Informal: Hi! / Hello! · Formal: Dear Mr/Mrs Smith,
Thank	Informal: Thanks for... · Formal: Thank you very much for...
Future	Informal: See you again soon! · Formal: I look forward to hearing from you.
End	Informal: Love / Cheers / Bye · Formal: Yours sincerely / Best regards

Examples:

- Informal: "Hi! Thanks for coming to my party. I really liked the present! See you again soon. Love, Ginny"
- Formal: "Dear Nadia, Thank you very much for your work in Rio. The conference was very successful. Best regards, Sanjit"

Journeys

Unit 7 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Compare animals, places and ways of travelling using comparatives and superlatives.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Use comparative adjectives to compare two things
- ✓ Use superlative adjectives to compare one thing with all others
- ✓ Use everyday adjectives and their opposites
- ✓ Talk about ways of travelling
- ✓ Talk about money (borrow, lend, change, cash, credit card)
- ✓ Make polite requests (Can I...? Could I...?)

Topics: adjectives · animal journeys · comparative adjectives · stressed and weak syllables

Vocabulary — Adjectives & opposites

clean ↔ dirty	difficult ↔ easy	fast ↔ slow	safe ↔ dangerous
cold ↔ hot	huge ↔ tiny	long ↔ short

Use these adjectives to describe commutes, transportation, cities, and the weather.

Vocabulary — Animal journeys

saiga antelope (35 km/day from Central Asia)	loggerhead turtle (~14,000 km migration/ 15 years)
calf (baby saiga)

Every year, animals around the world go on long, difficult journeys called migrations.

Pronunciation — Stressed and weak syllables

In long words, ONE syllable is STRESSED (louder, longer, clearer). Other syllables are WEAK — often with the schwa /ə/.

- AFrica /'æfrɪkə/ — stress on AF; final "a" is /ə/ schwa
- EUrope /'jʊərəp/ — stress on EU; "rope" is weak /rəp/
- ausTRAlia — stress on TRA
- anTARCTica — stress on TARC
- "than" between comparatives is weak: /ðən/ (NOT /ðæn/)

Comparative adjectives

Use the comparative to compare TWO things or groups. Add "than" after the comparative.

short	+ -er (big → bigger, cheap → cheaper, fast → faster)
-e	+ -r (safe → safer)
cons.+y	-y → -ier (easy → easier)
long	more + adjective (expensive → more expensive)
irreg.	good → better, bad → worse

Examples:

- Turtles have longer journeys than tree frogs.
- Tree frogs have shorter journeys than saiga antelopes.
- The female saiga's journey is more dangerous than the male's.
- Australia is hotter than Antarctica.
- Rock climbing is more fun than surfing. (opinion)

Lesson 7b · The deepest place on Earth

Page 84-85

Topics: ways of traveling · superlative adjectives · Mariana Trench

Vocabulary — Ways of traveling — collocations go BY + bicycle/train/car · travel BY + train/bus/plane/boat/taxi/a bus/the train · ride · drive · fly

James Cameron travelled to the Mariana Trench — the deepest place in the ocean — in his submarine, the Deepsea Challenger. He's also the filmmaker behind Titanic and Avatar.

Superlative adjectives

Use the superlative to compare ONE thing with ALL the other things in a group. Use "the" before the superlative.

short	the + -est (big → the biggest, fast → the fastest)
-e	the + -st (safe → the safest)
cons.+y	-y → -iest (easy → the easiest)
long	the most + adjective (the most expensive)
irreg.	good → the best, bad → the worst

Examples:

- The Mariana Trench is the deepest place in the ocean.
- This fish has the biggest teeth of any fish for its size.
- Titanic is the most popular movie by James Cameron.
- Avatar was the most expensive movie.
- Dublin is the most famous city in Ireland.

Lesson 7c · Visit Colombia!

Page 86-87

Topics: Colombia · word focus: time

Vocabulary — Colombian cities

Bogotá (capital)	Cartagena (Caribbean port, historic city)	Medellín (city, coffee, sculpture)	Calles (city, salsa, dance festivals)
Ciudad Perdida ("Lost City", 4-day trek, 1,241 steps)

Colombia has more than just Bogotá. Each city has its own character — beaches, sculptures, salsa, or ancient ruins.

Word focus: time

Time pairs with different verbs and prepositions to make common phrases.

Examples:

- have a good time = enjoy yourself / have fun
- have time FOR + noun (have time for sports)

- spend time + -ing / with (spend time with family)
- save time = finish in less time (save time by taking a taxi)

Lesson 7d · Travel money + travel blog + final journey

Page 88-91

Topics: money · making requests · travel blog · so and because · video lesson · final journey · sockeye salmon

Vocabulary — Money (7d)

borrow (you take from someone)	lend (you give to someone)	cash (notes + coins)	credit card change dollars INTO euros	spend money ON	pay BY credit card / pay FOR ticket	buy something
ATM (cash machine)

Common confusion: BORROW = take temporarily / LEND = give temporarily. "Can you LEND me $10?" / "Can I BORROW $10?"

Vocabulary — Video — sockeye salmon (7f)

skin	shallow ↔ deep	smooth ↔ rough	decay (body breaks down)
lay eggs	turn (change colour)	brown bears	one in a thousand

In Alaska, sockeye salmon swim up shallow rivers to lay their eggs. Only one in every thousand finishes the journey — many are caught by brown bears.

Real life — Making requests (7d)

Polite request: Can I...? / Can you...? / Could I...? — followed by the base verb.

Ask	Can I change ...? / Can you give me ...? / Could I have ...?
Yes	Yes, of course. / Sure. / Certainly.
No	I'm sorry, but ... / I'm afraid I don't ...

Examples:

- Can I change one hundred dollars into euros? — Yes, of course.
- Can you give me the euros in tens?
- Could I borrow your phone, please?
- I'm sorry, but I don't have any change.

Writing skill — so and because (7e)

BECAUSE gives the REASON. SO gives the ACTION/RESULT. Choose based on what comes next.

because	action, BECAUSE + reason
so	reason, SO + action

Examples:

- We called a taxi BECAUSE we were late for the meeting. (action + reason)
- The train was late, SO we waited on the platform. (reason + action)

- I felt sorry for the bus driver BECAUSE he looked sad.
- I wanted a hot meal, SO I left the bus.
- It started raining, SO they ran home.

Appearance

Unit 8 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Talk about clothes, festivals, and people's appearance using present continuous and have got.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Talk about clothes
- ✓ Talk about faces and parts of the body
- ✓ Use the present continuous with the present simple
- ✓ Use have got to talk about appearance
- ✓ Describe a picture or photo

Topics: clothes · present continuous · present simple vs continuous · /s/ vs /ʃ/

Vocabulary — Clothes

bag	belt	coat	dress
jacket	jeans	leggings	scarf shirt	shoes	shorts	skirt
socks	suit	sunglasses	tie
top	trousers	trainers	T-shirt uniform

Pronunciation — /s/ and /ʃ/

The letter "s" can sound /s/ (suit, socks, sunglasses) or /ʃ/ (shoes, shirt, shorts). "Sh" is always /ʃ/.

- /s/ — suit, socks, skirt, sunglasses
- /ʃ/ — shoes, shirt, shorts

Present continuous

Use the present continuous for: an action you can see, an action happening now or around the time of speaking, or a changing action.

+	Subject + am/is/are + verb-ing
–	Subject + am/is/are + NOT + verb-ing
?	Am/Is/Are + subject + verb-ing?

Examples:

- The two women in the photo are making bags.
- The company is training more workers.
- Rags2Riches started in 2007 and it's still growing today.
- I'm not working this week. I'm on holiday.
- He isn't wearing a coat. He looks cold.
- What are you wearing?
- Is she buying that bag? — Yes, she is. / No, she isn't.

Present simple vs present continuous

Use present simple for facts and routines. Use present continuous for actions now or around the time of speaking.

Examples:

- Rajo Laurel normally designs clothes for the rich and famous (routine).
- At the moment, he's designing some new bags for Rags2Riches (now).
- Today she is visiting an important customer at the office.
- Usually he doesn't go to the gym during the week.

Topics: face & body · have got · sound and spelling

Vocabulary — Face and body

arm	beard	ear	eye
foot	hair	hand	head
leg	mouth	neck	nose shoulder

Pronunciation — Sound and spelling — vowel sounds

Same letters can have different vowel sounds. Match words by SOUND, not spelling.

- head — leg (/e/)
- shoes — suit (/u:/)
- beard — ears (/ɪə/)
- eye — tie (/aɪ/)
- feet — jeans (/i:/)
- nose — coat (/əʊ/)

have got

Use have got for: appearance, possessions, family. Same meaning as "have", but used a lot in spoken British English.

+	I've got / He's got / They've got + ...
–	I haven't got / He hasn't got + ...
?	Have I got? / Has he got? — Yes, he has. / No, he hasn't.

Examples:

- I've got one sister. (I have one sister.)
- He hasn't got a beard.
- Have they got a car? — Yes, they have. / No, they haven't.
- She's got long hair and blue eyes.
- Note: He's tall = he is. He's got long hair = he has.

Lesson 8c · Pink and blue

Page 98-99

Topics: toys · word focus: like

Vocabulary — Possessions and toys

toy	doll	jewellery	make-up unusual	superhero	dinosaur	advertisement possessions

Word focus: like

The word "like" has three different uses. Choose the right meaning by context.

Examples:

- There are blue toys LIKE robots, dinosaurs and superheroes. → such as
- Girls LIKE pink make-up, clothes, or toys for cooking. → love / enjoy
- Many of these girls were LIKE Seowoo and had lots of pink things. → similar to

Lesson 8d · Talking about photos + short messages + festivals

Page 100-103

Topics: describing photos · silent letters · writing short messages · KISS rules · festival adjectives · video lesson

Vocabulary — Festival adjectives (8f)

boring	colourful	crowded	exciting
fun	loud	noisy	popular
quiet	relaxing

Vocabulary — Festival/parade objects (8f)

clarinet	clown	costume	glove
jewellery	mask	trumpet	fireworks drums

Pronunciation — Silent letters (8d)

Some letters are written but not pronounced. Listen carefully to which letter is silent.

- interesting (silent e — middle e)
- sometimes (silent e — final e)
- everyday (silent e)
- listening (silent t)
- blonde (silent e)
- closely (silent e)

Real life — Talking about pictures and photos (8d)

Useful phrases for describing what you see in a photograph.

Examples:

- Introduce: This photo shows ... / I can see ...
- Location: On the left/right, in the middle, at the front/back
- People: She looks happy / sad / bored / nervous. He is reading / sleeping / thinking.
- Opinion: I think ..., I like it because it's a beautiful picture.

Writing skill — The KISS rules (Keep It Short and Simple) (8e)

When you send short messages, follow these six rules to keep them clear and quick.

Examples:

- 1. Don't add unnecessary information.
- 2. Use numbers (not words) where possible. ("Let's speak at 2" not "at two")
- 3. Don't use long sentences with lots of conjunctions.
- 4. Don't use two sentences when one is enough.
- 5. Use less formal words and phrases.
- 6. Miss out some words such as pronouns and auxiliary verbs. ("Please call me" not "Please can you call me")

Entertainment

Unit 9 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Talk about films, TV, art, and arrange to go out using "be going to" and the infinitive of purpose.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Talk about future plans with be going to
- ✓ Use the infinitive of purpose correctly
- ✓ Talk about different types of films and TV programmes
- ✓ Talk about nature
- ✓ Invite someone
- ✓ Make arrangements

Topics: films · be going to · /tə/

Vocabulary — Films

animation	comedy	documentary	fantasy
horror film	romantic comedy	science-fiction film	thriller

See vs watch: "I went TO SEE a film at the cinema" (the event). "I like WATCHING films with friends" (the activity).

Pronunciation — /tə/ — weak "to"

In connected speech, "to" before a verb is reduced to a weak /tə/ sound.

- I'm going /tə/ buy a ticket.
- Are you going /tə/ see the film?
- I'm going /tə/ watch it later.

be going to (for plans)

Use "be going to" + base verb to talk about future plans (something already decided).

+	Subject + am/is/are + going to + base verb
–	Subject + am/is/are NOT + going to + base verb
?	Am/Is/Are + subject + going to + base verb?

Examples:

- I'm going to buy a ticket for the next film.
- I'm not going to stay out late.
- What are you going to see?
- Are you going to see the film? — Yes, I am. / No, I'm not.
- Tip: We don't usually say "going to GO". Say "I'm going to work" not "I'm going to go to work".

Topics: TV programmes · infinitive of purpose

Vocabulary — TV programmes & opinions

sports programme	comedy show	quiz show	horror film
drama series	wildlife documentary	the news

Adjectives to describe shows: funny, interesting, violent, scary, exciting, fun, boring.

Infinitive of purpose

Use TO + base verb to give the REASON for an action (= "in order to").

Examples:

- Turn on the TV TO WATCH the news.
- Go online TO FIND a "How to" video.
- I'm going to record this film TO WATCH it later.
- I'm going to London tomorrow TO MEET some friends.
- Q: Why are you going? — A: To meet some friends.

Lesson 9c · Nature in art

Topics: nature · like vs prefer

Vocabulary — Nature

birds	flowers	grass	lakes
leaves	mountains	rocks	sea
sky	trees	landscape

like vs prefer

"Prefer" means like one thing more than another. Use it to compare two options.

Examples:

- Many people LIKE Witkiewicz's paintings of people's faces, but I PREFER his paintings of landscapes.
- I PREFER his other paintings, but many people love the sunflower paintings.
- A: Which picture do you prefer? 1 or 2? — B: I prefer 2 because...

Topics: inviting · arrangements · enthusiasm stress · reviews · sense verbs · wildlife · video lesson

Vocabulary — Wildlife filming (9f)

rainforest	camera trap	species	team
kinkajou	ocelot	Honduras	wildlife documentary

A camera trap takes photos automatically when an animal moves in front of it. "Species" = type or group of animals (e.g., leopards are a species of big cat).

Pronunciation — Showing enthusiasm — stress on the key word (9d)

When you accept an invitation enthusiastically, put strong stress on one key word to sound excited.

- I'd LOVE to!
- I'd really LIKE to!
- That's GREAT!
- That sounds FANTASTIC!

Real life — Inviting and making arrangements (9d)

Common phrases for inviting someone, responding to an invitation, and arranging a time/place.

Examples:

- Inviting: Would you like to come? — Are you free? — Do you want to go?
- Accepting: Thanks. I'd love to. / That's great.
- Refusing: I'm sorry, but I'm working late tonight.
- Arranging: What time does it start? — Let's meet at seven. — See you at seven.

Writing skill — Sense verbs in reviews (9e)

Use sense verbs + adjective to give your opinion in reviews. The five sense verbs are: look, feel, sound, taste, smell.

Examples:

- They look amazing! (sight)
- It tasted great. (taste)
- It sounds very slow. (sound)
- It smells awful! (smell)
- I felt scared at the beginning. (feel)

Learning

Unit 10 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Talk about subjects, experiences, memory, and habits using the present perfect and past simple.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Use the present perfect correctly
- ✓ Ask about past experiences
- ✓ Talk about subjects
- ✓ Talk about learning
- ✓ Check and clarify information

Topics: subjects · learning verbs · synonyms & antonyms · present perfect

Vocabulary — School subjects

history	physics	literature	geography
biology	mathematics	chemistry	IT (information technology)

Each subject studies a different topic: history → the past · physics → heat, light, energy · literature → books · geography → places · biology → living things · mathematics → numbers · chemistry → chemicals · IT → computers.

Vocabulary — Learning verbs

learn	study	pass	fail
forget	remember	know	understand teach	discover	invent	design practise

Synonyms — words with similar meanings: learn = study. Antonyms — words with opposite meanings: pass ≠ fail.

Present perfect

Use the present perfect to talk about something that happened in the past but is connected to NOW (we don't say exactly when).

+	Subject + have/has + past participle
–	Subject + haven't/hasn't + past participle
?	Have/Has + subject + past participle?

Examples:

- I've learned the vocabulary for the test.
- He's invented a new robot.
- We've discovered a new type of medicine.
- I haven't done my homework. He hasn't passed the exam.
- Have you forgotten his phone number? — Yes, I have. / No, I haven't.
- Note: Regular verbs add -ed (learn → learned). Irregular verbs have their own forms (do → done, go → been/gone).

Have you ever ...?

Use "Have you ever ...?" to ask about past experiences. Use "never" in negative answers.

Examples:

- Have you ever studied French? — No, I've never studied French.
- Have you ever failed a test? — Yes, I have. I've failed my driving test twice!
- Have you ever met a famous person?

Lesson 10b · How good is your memory?

Page 120-121

Topics: memory · present perfect vs past simple · -ed endings

Vocabulary — Things to remember

names and faces	directions	addresses	telephone numbers
dates	facts	shopping lists	songs

Pronunciation — Past tense -ed endings

The "-ed" ending of regular past tense verbs has THREE different sounds depending on the last sound of the base verb.

- /t/ — after voiceless sounds (k, p, s, ʃ, tʃ, f): washed, watched, stopped, helped
- /d/ — after voiced sounds (b, g, l, m, n, v, vowels): loved, played, called, opened
- /ɪd/ — after t or d sounds (extra syllable): wanted, started, decided, needed

Present perfect vs Past simple

Both tenses talk about the past. The choice depends on whether we say WHEN it happened.

Past simple	when we KNOW or SAY the exact time
Present perfect	when we DON'T say or know the exact time

Examples:

- Nelson HAS WON the USA Memory Championship four times. (general — no exact time)
- He WON the competition in 2011, 2012, 2014 and again in 2015. (exact times)
- My friend HAS PASSED his maths exam twice. He FAILED it last year and this year.
- Have you ever studied in another country? — Yes, I've studied in Mexico. (experience)
- When did you study there? — I studied in Mexico in 1993. (specific time)

Topics: daily habits · word focus: up

Vocabulary — Daily habits

drinking coffee	brushing teeth	swimming	biting fingernails eating chocolate	checking phone	smoking	practising guitar
putting sugar in tea	eating breakfast	learning new words

Word focus: up

Many phrasal verbs combine a verb with "up". Each combination has its own meaning.

Examples:

- get up = get out of bed (He gets up at 6.30 a.m.)
- wake up = stop sleeping (We wake up at seven every day.)
- give up = stop doing a bad habit (They want to give up smoking.)
- go up = increase (The cost of food goes up in the winter.)
- dress up = wear fun or nice clothes (I always dress up for a party.)

Lesson 10d · Communication problems + voicemail + memory video

Page 124-127

Topics: checking & clarifying · contrastive stress · email & websites · imperatives · memory · video lesson

Vocabulary — Email addresses & websites (10e)

@ = at	. = dot	_ = underscore	/ = slash
- = hyphen

Example: j_jones@hotmail.co.uk → "j underscore jones at hotmail dot co dot uk"

Vocabulary — Language learning (10f)

alphabet	classroom	pronunciation	memorize repeat	translate	vocabulary	practice fluent

Pronunciation — Contrastive stress (10d)

When you correct information, put strong stress on the corrected word — that signals the change to the listener.

- A: Is that three in the MORNING? — B: No, in the AFTERNOON.
- A: Was that the ENCASA Hotel? — B: No, the ANCASA Hotel. A for apple.
- A: Is that E for England? — B: No, it's A for apple.

Real life — Checking and clarifying (10d)

When you can't hear or understand on the phone, use these phrases to check the information.

Examples:

- Is that three in the morning? — No, in the afternoon.
- Was that the Encasa Hotel? — No, the Ancasa Hotel. A for apple.
- The number is 603 2169 2266. — So that's 603 2169 2266.
- Have you called our colleagues? — Yes, I have.
- Have you emailed me all the designs? — No, I haven't.

Writing skill — Imperatives in messages (10e)

When you write a phone message, simplify what the speaker said by using the IMPERATIVE form (= just the base verb, no subject).

Examples:

- Speaker: "He can download them from this address: omarox.com/a-1"
- Message: "Download them from omarox.com/a-1."
- Speaker: "Can you call Jim back this evening?"
- Message: "Call Jim back this evening."

Tourism

Unit 11 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Plan trips, give advice and suggestions, and use have to / can / should for rules and recommendations.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Talk about visiting another country
- ✓ Give advice with should or shouldn't
- ✓ Talk about necessity and possibility
- ✓ Talk about places, people and things
- ✓ Talk about tourism
- ✓ Make suggestions and talk about holidays

Topics: in another country · have to / can · /hæftə/

Vocabulary — In another country

climate	currency	licence	multicultural right-hand side	temperature	visa	language
road travel	weather	money	visas

Pronunciation — /hæftə/

"have to" is pronounced /hæftə/ in connected speech (one quick word, not two).

- I /hæftə/ get a visa.
- You /hæftə/ start work at nine.
- Tourists don't /hæftə/ get a new licence.

have to / don't have to / can / can't

Use these modals to talk about rules. They are followed by the BASE FORM of the main verb.

have to	necessary (a rule you must follow)
don't have to	not necessary (it's your choice)
can	possible / allowed can't	not possible / not allowed

Examples:

- You HAVE TO get a holiday visa from the Australian Embassy.
- Tourists DON'T HAVE TO get a new driving licence.
- Tourists CAN stay for a maximum of six months.
- You CAN'T work in Australia without a work visa.
- Business class passengers don't have to wait.
- All passengers have to show their passport.

Topics: tourism · word families · should/shouldn't · word focus: take

Vocabulary — Tourism vocabulary

return ticket	single ticket	carry-on bag	book the hotel
rent a car	buy souvenirs	tour guide	sightseeing public transport	local food	check in

Word families — when you learn a new word, learn the family: tour (verb) → tourism (noun) → tourist (person) → tour guide (collocation).

Vocabulary — Tourism categories

Type of holiday: camping, hiking, sightseeing, shopping Things you buy: souvenirs Other people: tour guide, tourist should / shouldn't

Use should/shouldn't to give ADVICE. Followed by the base form. No auxiliary do/does in negatives or questions.

+	Subject + should + base verb
–	Subject + shouldn't + base verb
?	Should + subject + base verb?

Examples:

- You SHOULD rent a car.
- You SHOULDN'T go in the winter.
- SHOULD I go with a tour guide? — Yes, you should. / No, you shouldn't.
- You should take a holiday. You shouldn't take the bus.

Word focus: take

"Take" pairs with different types of nouns to form common collocations.

Examples:

- take + time when you stop work: take a break, take a holiday
- take + type of transport: take a taxi, take the bus
- take + an object: take an umbrella, take some words

Lesson 11c · Should I go there?

Page 134-135

Topics: Antarctica · reasons for/against · something / nobody / anywhere

something, nobody, anywhere — compound pronouns

Combine some-/any-/no- with -thing/-body/-where to talk about people, places, and objects/activities.

-thing	an object or activity
-body	a person
-where	a place

Examples:

- I'd like to do SOMETHING exciting. (positive sentence → some-)
- There isn't ANYTHING in my bag! (negative sentence → any-)
- Is there ANYWHERE in the world without other people? (question → any-)
- NOBODY lives there. (no- = positive verb but negative meaning)
- I need something to eat. — Does anyone want to go sightseeing with me?

Lesson 11d · A holiday in S. America + questionnaires + London tour

Page 136-139

Topics: making suggestions · /ʌ/ /ʊ/ /u:/ · questionnaire · hotel & questionnaire · writing: questionnaire · open & closed questions · London buildings · video lesson

Vocabulary — London landmarks (11f)

the Shard	the Gherkin	the Cheese grater	the Walkie-Talkie
Tower Bridge	River Thames	the Tower of London	football pitch

London buildings often get nicknames from their shape: the Gherkin (cucumber-shaped), the Cheese grater, the Walkie-Talkie. The Shard is the tallest building in western Europe.

Pronunciation — /ʌ/, /ʊ/ or /u:/ (11d)

Three vowel sounds that look similar in spelling but sound different. Listen carefully and learn each word's sound.

- /ʌ/ — bus, but, love
- /ʊ/ — could, should, book
- /u:/ — cruise, food, you

Real life — Making suggestions (11d)

Several common phrases to suggest an idea and to respond.

Examples:

- Suggesting: You SHOULD go there. — How about visiting the Himalayas? — Can I make a suggestion?
- Suggesting: Why don't you go on a tour? — You COULD travel on your own.

- Responding +: Maybe you're right. / That's a really good idea.
- Responding -: But the disadvantage is that it's expensive. / But the advantage is that it's with a tour guide.

Writing skill — Closed and open questions (11e)

Good questionnaires use BOTH types. Closed = yes/no answer. Open = longer answer.

Examples:

- CLOSED — Did the tour guide answer all your questions? (yes/no)
- CLOSED — Were all our staff polite and helpful? (yes/no)
- OPEN — How was your bus tour? (longer answer)
- OPEN — What other suggestions can you make? (longer answer)
- Tip: Ask a closed question first, then a follow-up open question for more detail.

Real life — Giving a tour (11f)

Useful phrases for guiding visitors around a place.

Examples:

- Opening: Good morning and welcome to the tour! Today, I'm going to show you around the city of London.
- Pointing things out: This is ... (the River Thames / Tower Bridge / The Shard, etc.) It's famous because ...
- Moving on: Now let's look at another famous London sight.
- Directions: Straight ahead / To the right / Further to the right, you can see ...
- Closing: That's the end of the tour. Do you have any questions?

Tenses

Unit 12 of 12 · Grammar Study Sheet

Master the 7 most common English tenses, one tense per lesson. Each lesson explains the rules, signal words, and when to use it — all referenced to IELTS exam-style questions.

What you will be able to do

- ✓ Use Present Simple for habits and facts
- ✓ Use Present Continuous for actions happening now and current trends
- ✓ Use Present Perfect for experiences and unfinished time
- ✓ Use Past Simple for completed past actions
- ✓ Use Past Continuous for ongoing past actions and background
- ✓ Use Future Simple (will) for predictions and spontaneous decisions
- ✓ Use Be going to for plans and predictions based on evidence
- ✓ Recognise tense signal words / time markers
- ✓ Identify the correct tense in IELTS-style exam questions

Topics: present simple

Form — Present Simple

Use for habits, routines, general truths, and permanent situations. Subject decides whether the verb takes -s (he/she/it) or not.

+	I/you/we/they + base verb; he/she/it + verb-s
–	I/you/we/they + don't + base; he/she/it + doesn't + base
?	Do I/you/we/they + base? Does he/she/it + base?

Examples:

- She works in an office every day.
- I don't drink coffee.
- Does he speak English?
- Water boils at 100°C. (general truth)
- My flight leaves at 6 a.m. tomorrow. (schedule)

When to use Present Simple

Pick this tense when the situation is habitual, permanent, or always-true.

Examples:

- HABITS — I go to the gym on Mondays.
- FACTS — The Earth revolves around the Sun.
- PERMANENT STATES — She lives in Paris.
- SCHEDULES — The train arrives at 10:15.
- Signal words: every day, usually, often, sometimes, always, never, on Mondays.

Topics: present continuous

Form — Present Continuous

be (am/is/are) + verb-ing. Spelling: drop final -e (write → writing), double consonant after 1 vowel (run → running), -ie → -y + -ing (lie → lying).

+	I am, he/she/it is, you/we/they are + verb-ing
–	subject + am/is/are NOT + verb-ing
?	Am/Is/Are + subject + verb-ing?

Examples:

- I am studying for my IELTS exam.
- It is raining right now.
- They aren't working today.

- Are you listening to me?
- My sister is learning Japanese this year. (temporary)

When to use Present Continuous

Action happening NOW, temporary situations, fixed future plans, and changing trends. Don't use with stative verbs (know, love, believe, want).

Examples:

- NOW — Look! It is raining outside.
- TEMPORARY — I am living with my parents this month.
- FUTURE ARRANGEMENT — We are meeting at 7 p.m. tomorrow.
- TREND — More people are working from home these days.
- Signal words: now, right now, at the moment, today, this week, these days, Look!, Listen!

Lesson 12c · Present Perfect

Page 204-205

Topics: present perfect

Form — Present Perfect

have/has + past participle. Regular verbs: + -ed (work → worked). Irregular verbs: see page 182 list (go → gone, see → seen, write → written).

+	I/you/we/they have + past participle; he/she/it has + past participle
–	subject + haven't/hasn't + past participle
?	Have/Has + subject + past participle?

Examples:

- I have visited Japan three times.
- She has lived here since 2015.
- They haven't finished the project yet.
- Have you ever tried Korean food?
- He has just submitted his application.

When to use Present Perfect

Past action with present connection: experiences, unfinished time periods, recent actions with results that matter now.

Examples:

- EXPERIENCE — I have been to Italy. (any time in life)
- UNFINISHED TIME — She has lived here for five years. (still lives here)
- RECENT — They have just arrived. (= a moment ago + still relevant)
- CHANGE OVER TIME — Technology has changed dramatically since 2000.
- Signal words: ever, never, just, already, yet, since + point in time, for + duration, recently, this year, so far.

Topics: past simple

Form — Past Simple

Regular verbs: + -ed. Irregular verbs: each has its own form (see page 182). Negatives and questions use "did" + base form — for ALL subjects.

+	subject + verb-ed (worked) / irregular past form (went)
–	subject + didn't + BASE verb (not the past form)
?	Did + subject + BASE verb?

Examples:

- I worked in Paris in 2019.
- She didn't finish her homework. (NOT didn't finished)
- Did you watch the news?
- Shakespeare wrote over 30 plays. (irregular)
- They went to the cinema yesterday.

When to use Past Simple

Completed action at a definite past time. The most-used past tense.

Examples:

- DEFINITE PAST — I lived in London in 2018.
- SEQUENCE — She got up, made coffee, and left for work.
- PAST HABIT — When I was a child, I read a lot.
- PAST STATE — He was a teacher for 30 years.
- Signal words: yesterday, last week/month/year, in 2010, two days ago, when I was a child, this morning.

Topics: past continuous

Form — Past Continuous

was/were + verb-ing. I/he/she/it → was. You/we/they → were.

+	I/he/she/it was + verb-ing; you/we/they were + verb-ing
–	subject + wasn't/weren't + verb-ing
?	Was/Were + subject + verb-ing?

Examples:

- I was watching TV at 8 p.m. yesterday.
- They were having a meeting when the fire alarm went off.
- She wasn't paying attention during the lecture.
- Were you sleeping when I called?
- It was raining heavily when we left.

When to use Past Continuous

Action in progress at a specific past moment. Often paired with past simple (the interrupted-action pattern).

Examples:

- AT A PAST MOMENT — At 7 p.m., I was having dinner.
- BACKGROUND — When I arrived, it was raining. (rain = background)
- INTERRUPTION — I was reading WHEN the phone rang.
- PARALLEL — While she was cooking, he was watching TV.
- Signal words: while, when (with interruption), at + time + yesterday/last week, all morning, during the meeting, this time last year.

Topics: future simple (will)

Form — Future Simple with "will"

will + BASE verb. Same for ALL subjects. Negative = will not = won't.

+	subject + will + base verb
–	subject + won't + base verb (= will not)
?	Will + subject + base verb?

Examples:

- I will help you with your homework.
- It won't rain tomorrow.
- Will you marry me?
- A: The phone is ringing. B: I'll answer it. (spontaneous)
- I think she'll pass the exam. (prediction)

When to use "will"

Predictions, spontaneous decisions at the moment of speaking, promises, offers, and future facts.

Examples:

- PREDICTION — I think it will rain tomorrow.
- SPONTANEOUS DECISION — I'm thirsty — I'll get a drink.
- PROMISE — I'll always love you.
- OFFER — I'll help you with the bags.
- CONDITIONAL — If you study hard, you WILL pass.
- Signal words: tomorrow, next week, soon, probably, I think, I expect, in the future.

Topics: be going to Form — Be going to am/is/are + going to + BASE verb. Use the present form of be.

+	I am, he/she/it is, you/we/they are + going to + base verb
–	subject + am not/Isn't/aren't + going to + base verb
?	Am/Is/Are + subject + going to + base verb?

Examples:

- I am going to start a new diet next week.
- She isn't going to apply for that job.
- Are you going to study tonight?
- Look at those clouds — it's going to rain. (evidence-based)

- We're going to get married in June. (planned)

When to use Be going to

Planned future (decision made BEFORE speaking) or prediction based on present evidence.

Examples:

- PLANNED ACTION — I'm going to study French next year. (already decided)
- EVIDENCE-BASED PREDICTION — Watch out! That glass is going to fall.
- INTENTION — She's going to be a doctor.
- IMMINENT — Hurry up — the train is going to leave!
- will vs be going to: "will" = decided NOW; "be going to" = decided BEFORE / based on evidence.
- Signal words: tomorrow, next week, on Friday, this weekend, tonight, Look! (with visible evidence)